- Legal name changes require official documentation.
- Tickets cannot be transferred to a different traveler.
- Some changes may involve fees or fare differences.

Name Correction vs Name Change: What's the Difference?

Many travelers confuse name correction with name change, but they are treated differently by the airline's reservation system.

◆ Name Correction

This includes minor adjustments such as:

- Spelling mistakes (e.g., “Jhon” → “John”)
- Missing letters or typos.
- Inverted first and last names.

These are usually simple and may be processed without major fees if reported early.

◆ Name Change

This applies to formal updates when:

- You got married or divorced.
- You legally changed your name via court order.

In these cases, you will need to provide official documentation such as a Marriage Certificate, Divorce Decree, or Legal Court Order. For complex cases, it’s often faster to resolve everything by speaking with an expert via +1 \(855\)-234-9809.
